COMPRENSIÓN DE TEXTO

Lea el siguiente texto y responda a las preguntas:

Yesterday afternoon, Ana was walking near the town hall when she saw a car crash into a lamppost. The young driver said he hadn't seen the traffic light because the sun was in his eyes. Nobody was injured, but the lamppost was broken and the street was blocked for almost an hour. Two local police officers arrived quickly and asked Ana some questions because she had seen everything. She explained what had happened and gave her name and phone number in case they needed more information later. The officers thanked her for her help and told her she could go home, but they asked her to call the station if she remembered anything else.
